

Pre-Application Oak Park Housing

February 2012

The Housing Authority is not accepting applications for housing at this time, due to plans to rebuild Oak Park Housing.

In the event there is an opening before the new apartments are built, you are welcome to answer the questions below and submit the information. We may call you depending on your needs and what comes available.

Giving false information at this time will be a reason for denial of housing in the future if you are invited to apply.
